Dedication

In any educational system, the quality of the administration is directly proportional to the performance of the tudents and teachers. Thus, we here at Stoneham High have been lucky to call Dr. William Hoyt our head dministrator for many of the past years. Over the years, Dr. Hoyt has dealt with his share of crisis and ontroversies, and has been forced to deal with difficult dilemmas rarely faced by officials in his position. Yet, rough it all, Bill Hoyt has always been accessible and easy to talk to. Never stand-offish or isolated, many a me a student could voice an opinion just when he/she saw Dr. Hoyt in the hall. Dr. Hoyt has never forgotten is roots as an educator: a classroom teacher. Dr. Hoyt has kept this with him always, and has never been anything ut courteous and open to any ideas or thoughts that a parent or student might have. It is for these reasons, and lso due to the fact that Dr. Hoyt will leave us for retirement after the 1994-95 school year, that we dedicate the lass of 1995 Yearbook to our most esteemed Superintendent of Schools, Dr. William Hoyt. Bill Hoyt may be etired from the system, but he'll certainly never be retired from our thoughts. We all wish Dr. Hoyt the happiests f retirements, as we're quite sure he'll be missed by all those who have ever had the good fortune to work with im. His was a reputable career, and one which he feels s best summed up by the poem below.

On Going Unnoticed

As vain to raise a voice as a sigh
In the tumult of free leaves on high.
What are you in the shadow of trees
Engaged up there with the light and breeze?

Less than the coral-root you know
That is content with the daylight low,
And has no leaves at all of its own;
Whose spotted flowers hang meanly down.

You grasp the bark by a rugged pleat,
And look up small from the forest's feet.
The only leaf it drops goes wide,
Your name not written on either side.

You linger your little hour and are gone,
And still the woods sweep leafily on,

Not even missing the coral-root flower
You took as a trophy of the hour.

Four All Seasons

Through the changing of the seasons, the maturing of the earth, and the enduring cycle of life, we have carried on, through four years of High School. We ourselves have grown and matured, rooted firmly like the tree, through all seasons. First as freshmen, in the Spring of our new beginnings, young and hopeful, we began our growth while facing a myriad of new experiences. As sophomores in Summer, we moved forward in a whirlwind of carefree and energetic actions, finding ourselves and our niches in school. Juniors in Autumn, preparing for the year to come, we struggled to understand this year which we were in. Through this season, anticipation mounted as we approached the Winter, the climax of our High School careers. And so Winter arrives, and as Seniors, we look back with the wisdom of four years. We look ahead with the full knowledge that there's a world still to come. We look through the gateway of graduation at the inspiring new beginnings which lay ahead, and look back upon four years of High School, upon all four seasons.

The Oak

Live thy Life,
Young and old,
Like yon oak,
Bright in spring,
Living gold;

Summer- rich
Then; and then
Autumn-changed,
Soberer-hued
Gold again.

All his leaves
Fall'n at length,
Look, he stands,
Trunk and bough,
Naked strength.

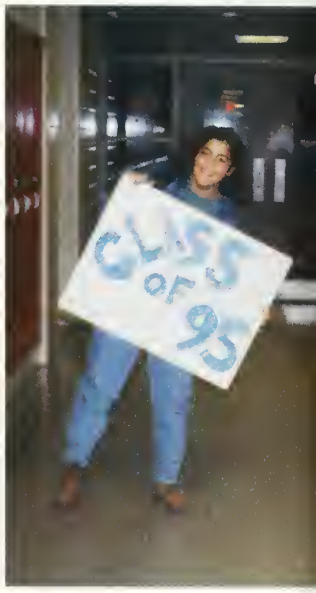
A tree just came out of nowhere and ...!!!



Who are we again?

He's my friend!!

Open wide and try not to think about it.

Smile and say "Hi".

What???!!!

"Hard to believe, but these pages are what we have to remind us of our four years."

"Heh, Heh, Heh....."

"It always seems to go so very quickly."

If you don't squirm it won't hurt as much.

Summer of 1994

"What wond'rous life is this I lead!
Ripe apples drop about my head;
The luscious clusters of the vine
Upon my mouth do crush their wine;
The nectarine and curious peach
Into my hands themselves do reach;
Stumbling on melons as I pass,
Ensnared with flowers, I fall on grass."

-From "The Garden" by Andrew Marvell

Look out behind you!!!

A theme idea, Katie?

So close.

Quick, listen to me!

Have we got everybody in this picture?!?!

Tanned, rested and ready

Yaawwnn.....

Everybody, together!!!

Look at this!!

Louow.

I love sand in my toes.

Rector, you fool, kiss me!

I only use the Clear Stick.

Is summer even here yet??

Fall of 1994

October gave a party;
The leaves by hundreds came-
The Chestnuts, Oaks, and Maples,
And leaves of every name.
The Sunshine spread a carpet,
And everything was grand,
Miss Weather lead the dancing,
Professor Wind the band.

-From "October's Party"
by George Cooper

Ever so close.

Meow!!!

Apples, apples everywhere.

Hey, it's Dave in a tree.

They've got us, Andrew.

The Last "First Day"

Put a smile on.

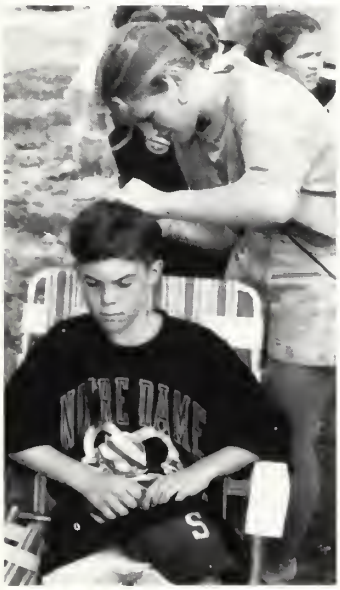
Town Day of 1994

Another Town Day came and went this year, and the Gods looked down upon our Senior Class with favor by holding off the rain. It was a gorgeous day to get your face painted,your hair braided, and get your yearly fix of fried dough and Italian sausage. Food was abundant, as were the crafts you could purchase and the martial arts you could watch. Bigger than ever, this year's Town Day reached new levels of glitz and prominence. The largest Town Day crowd ever helped to turn the day into a fundraising success for almost every group involved, including the beloved Yearbook table. All in all, it was a wonderful Town Day to remember as our last.

Do I amuse you??



I'm not happy with this.

It does a body good!!

Working oh so very hard.

Wanna get your hair braided???

A tasty candy named after myself.

Keep a stiff upper lip.

Oww!! Oww!! Oww!!

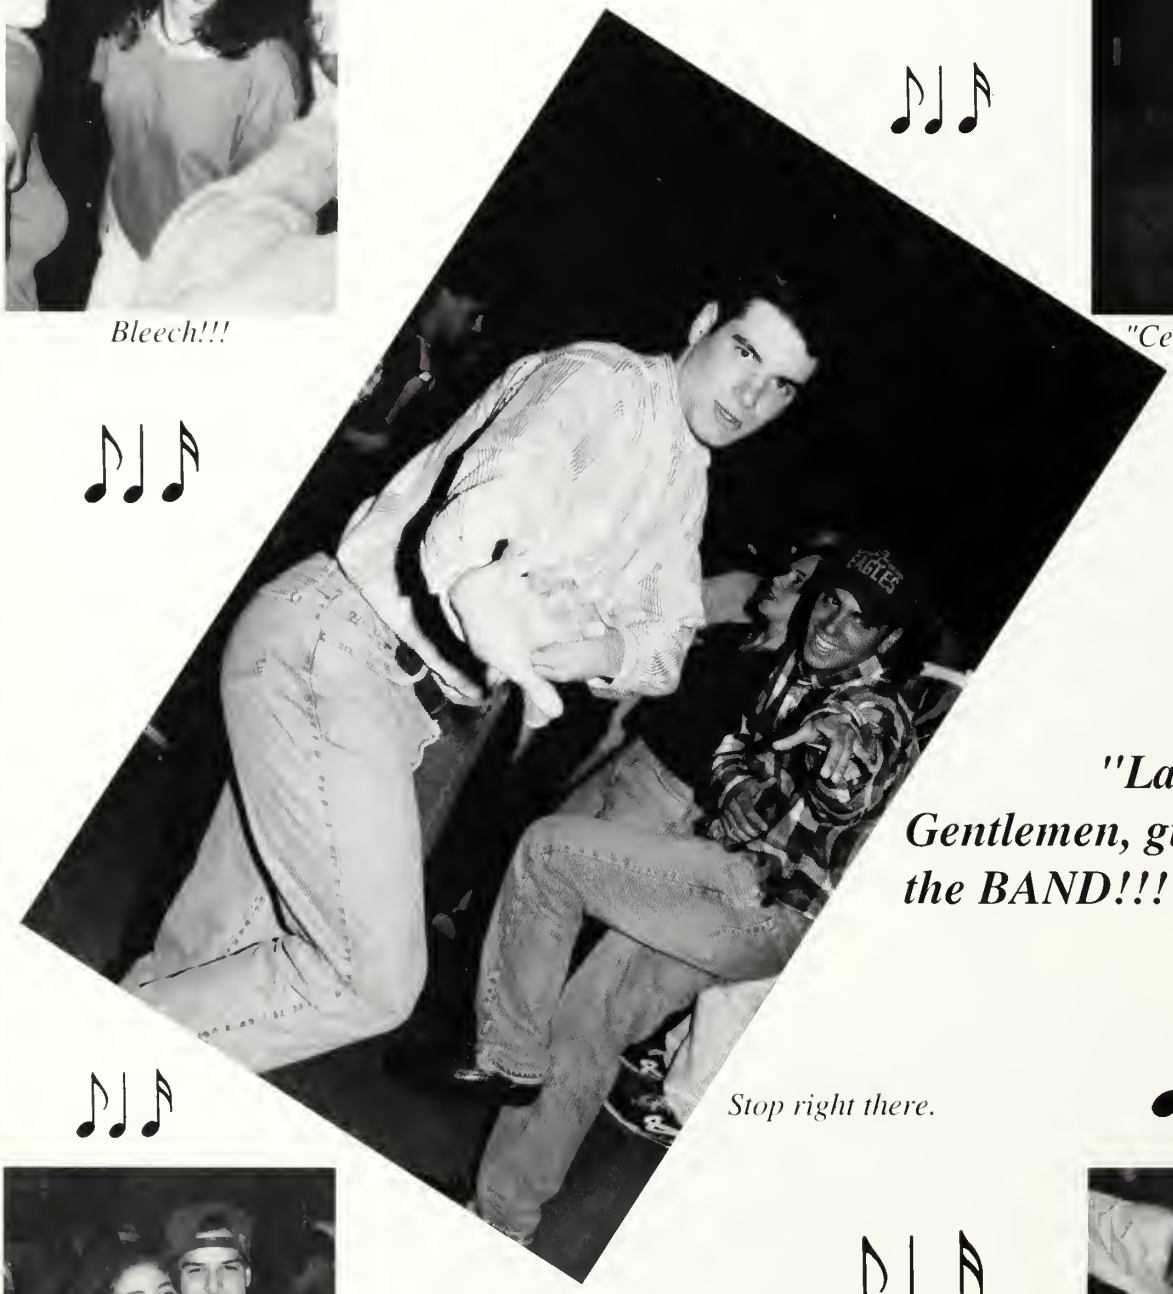
Doesn't hurt a bit.

Senior Class Dance

Bleech!!!

Almost as good as Rock'n Boll!

"Certainly worth the price."



Stop right there.

"Ladies and Gentlemen, give it up, for the BAND!!!"

"There will be no moshing at Stoneham High."

Groove to the beat!

Anybody thirsty?

Nobody knows I'm Elvis.

Awwwwww...

We're just wild and crazy guys.

The Senior Class Play:
Our Town

Once again this year, the Senior Class Play was a great success. Lead by the visionary Beth Zieff, the cast had no problem taking on the challenging roles and difficult scenery. Starring in the play were seniors Dennis D'Angelo as the Stage Manager, Laura Krakow as an impressive Emily Webb, Brant Berglund as George Gibbs, and Marci Iovanni as Mrs. Gibbs. Others seniors included Rachel Werlin, Julie Fratarcangeli, Kim Silvia, and Renee Doucette. The lighting design was executed by Justin McCarthy and Michael Picariello, whose many hours of hard work paid off admirably. The play, a drama set in a quiet New Hampshire town, demonstrates many qualities and tragedies in a small town. Congratulations to this year's cast and break a leg next year!!

Fall Sports

Of course, no institution is complete without athletic teams to provide both entertainment and the ability to better one's body as well as one's mind. At Stoneham High we were very fortunate this year to have many winning teams, two of which did better than ever, reaching new heights which had never before been achieved. Clearly, this was the year for many of our teams. Even though some fared better than others, they all did well, proving to all of us that this is a school full of both spirit and talent. After all, who could ever forget the bonfire pep rally, or the highly decorated girls' locker room. Yes, there were many seasons to remember.

Boys' Soccer

Sending it Downfield

To be completely honest, our season was not as successful as we expected it would be. Inconsistent performance plagued us throughout the season. Although our expectations were not fulfilled, the team really came together through tough times and put together a respectable record. This season, we really played some great games which showed off much of the talent that is on the team. It will be impossible to forget the last game of the season, when we went against Reading, who were the Middlesex League Champions this year. Despite our struggles, it is our hope that next year's team comes back strongly and does as well as they're obviously capable of.

Girls' Soccer

A New Tradition of Winning

The team made history this past year. The girls' soccer team has never made it to the state tournament, but then again, this really was a season of firsts. We did suffer from a slow beginning, but once we started our run there was no stopping us, as we eventually turned out a 9-7-4 record. Certainly, we had a season that will never be forgotten. We began as a team and evolved into a family. We earned a great deal of respect for ourselves and our supporters. It was a great season, a memorable season, and one that will live in the history books of Stoneham High forever. Thanks for the memories, and we wish the very best to next year's team.

Field Hockey

Outstanding In Our Field

Despite a losing record of 4-10-4, the Field Hockey team truly had a successful season. Our season centered around hard work and strong teamwork. We learned lessons that carried from the field into life. Dedication, team spirit, and strong leadership from Co-Captains Gina Pisari and Jen Scally made our season a real success. The highlight of the season was most definitely when we beat Reading in the final game of our season. The game was at home, which made it all the more special for everybody involved. Finally, after a season of ups and downs, we felt as if our hard work had finally paid off! We wish the best of luck to next year's team, and we'd also really like to say:

Sprinting To Tomorrow

The seniors graduated, the freshmen joined the ranks, and the predictions were made, mainly that the team was doomed to humiliation beyond understanding. Despite the mass' verdict, we remained optimistic calculating that with the help of miracles we would win most of our meets. Those miracles turned out to be underclassmen. We went on to go 7-2 on the year, capture second in the freshmen race at the Bay State Invitational and, with our incredible freshmen team, finish third at the Middlesex League Meet. Polishing off the season as the third best team in the league, we were quite satisfied with the team's performance, and happy to have proven everybody, including ourselves, wrong. All in all, it would have been difficult to choose a better way to end our running careers.

Girls' Cross Country

Running Onwards

Despite not winning the Middlesex League Championship this past season, overall the team was an excellent one and it had a very good season. The team really pulled together in its victory over Burlington at the league meet. This victory had special meaning to us, since it was Burlington who had defeated us at the dual meet not too long before. Thus, we were able to prove to our parents, fans, coaches and ourselves that we were the second best team in the Middlesex League. We certainly hope that next year's team does well. Hopefully, they will improve upon this year's record and be able to take home the championship . We wish them the best of luck, and hope they are able to run well.

Volleyball

Spiking a Way to Victory

We had a fun year, and we had a lot of players with experience. Even though we didn't do as well as we expected we would, we played hard and fought for everything we could get. We will always remember the good games along with the bad games. Though this wasn't quite the way we would have chosen to end our senior year, we still can't complain. On the positive side, we did give Lexington a tough match during their undefeated run. Kristal and Stacey would both like to wish the 1995-1996 team the very best of luck, hoping that they'll meet with nothing but victory along the way. They'll have all but two of the starters they had this year, and they should do quite well and come out on top!

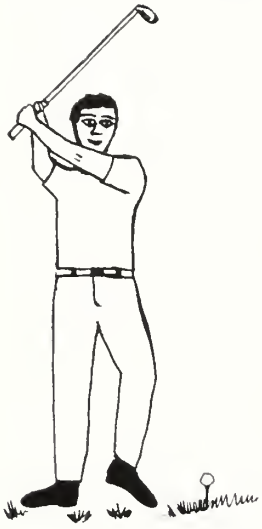
Golf

Playing Through



The Golf team had a season of ups and downs this year. Led by seniors Sean Wood, Erich Butters, and Bob Murgia, the team turned what looked like a disappointing season into a successful one by winning three out of the last four matches. Even though the team's record was a losing one, there were many pluses. Juniors Jeff Orsillo and Brenden Connors had splendid years, and sophomores Ryan Davis and Jared Leone also fared well. Freshmen Brian McCarthy and Joseph Silva achieved a great deal of success in their first year on the team. With all these great underclassmen we expect the team to have a strong year in 1995!

Fall Cheerleading

Something to Cheer For

It was a great season. We had a lot of new kids, and these faces blended well with the verterans we had returning. This year, the squad broke new grounds when we cheered consistently for female teams. At the same time, we were able to perform well for winning teams, adding to the excitement at every game. We had a wonderful time at our homecoming, entertaining the crowds and the teams. We reached new heights, going to a Middlesex League competition. We performed our very best, and gained a respectable placing. We know that next year's squad will do well, certainly they will wow the crowd just as well as this year. We wish them well, and hope that everything goes well for them.

Football

Superbowl Bound

This year, a year of first times, the football team did better then ever before, fighting their way all the way to the Division II Superbowl against Acton-Boxborough. It was a difficult beginning, and at times in the season it seemed as though the team wouldn't make it. They did though, and went to a Superbowl for the very first time in Stoneham High School history. While the team certainly deserved a great deal of the credit, not enough can be said about their dedicated leader, Coach Al Lanni. Coach Lanni saw the talent he had, and brought them as far as they could go, and then beyond. The team hopes that next year's group does as well, and even better, maybe even winning the Superbowl.

Homecoming of 1994

Homecoming, like the presidential elections, Olympics and leap years, is an exciting event which takes place only once every four years. We were fortunate to have it fall during our senior year when enthusiasm runs high. Between the Pep rally on Wednesday and the parade and Football game on Thursday, it was a two-day gala. The bright sunny day reflected our excited spirits as we pretended to be in a warmer climate on our floats-Las Vegas, New Orleans, Miami, and, of course, Houston. The band motivated us with their well rehearsed,upbeat music. Certainly, the day would not have been the same without the band, which really impressed us all. The football game peaked our spirits with a suspenseful and sometimes nervewracking battle with Reading for the right to play in a Super Bowl. Luckily, the game went well for us in the end, and we will always remember our homecoming as a day of triumph over the arch rival Rockets.

"Whose woods these are I think I know.
His house is in the village though;
He will not see me stopping here
To watch his woods fill up with snow.

The woods are lovely, dark and deep,
But I have promises to keep,
And miles to go before I sleep,
And miles to go before I sleep."

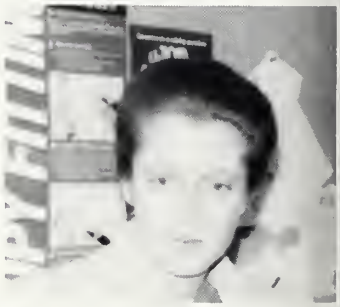
Winter Concert

On December 20, 1994 the Spartan Chorale and Band helped to celebrate a joyous season at the annual winter concert. The Spartan Chorale, directed by Ms. Kate Thayer, sang a selection of songs ranging from "Cool Yule" to Handel's "Messiah". A group of soloists also performed, including seniors D. D'Angelo, I. Judge, A. French, L. Krakow, and M. Feke. The Spartan Band, led by Mr. Edmund Grammer, played a number of well known selections including "Night Flight" by King, the "French Carol", "La Marche Des Rois", and "Of Pride and Celebration" by Swearingen. The Spartan Chorale and the Spartan Band blended their talents to perform a memorable and enjoyable concert.

Dramafest: Drive In

This year the Drama Club's entry into the Massachusetts High School Drama Guild's Drama Festival competition did exceptionally well. Drive In, was the first play in six years to advance beyond preliminaries, making its way to the Bromfield in Harvard where it was eliminated in Semi-Final competition. However, this was not before the play garnered many awards. The cast received honors with All-Star cast awards which went to Jill O'Brien and Chris Feudo in both Preliminaries and Semi- Finals, and Dennis D'Angelo who won in the Semi-Finals . The set designer, student Justin McCarthy, won for his design and the crew won for set execution and set-up and take-down. Unlike past shows, this year's play was directed by Missy Gerson, a free-lance director who made her Stoneham debut with Drive In. She was very impressive, considering the success of the play. Good luck to next year's cast and crew!



National Honor Society Induction

The National Honor Society Induction on February 13, 1995 was a time to welcome the new senior and junior members as the present members reflected on the happenings of the past year. With memories of Town Day's hair braiding booth, the doughnut sale, the yard sale, and candy-apple night, the Honor Society will not soon forget the sweat and time that went into raising funds for the annual scholarship. The energetic group of students also worked side by side with their peers as tutors, using their skills while gaining the satisfaction of knowing that they helped another student. The induction ceremony was enthusiastically supported by parents, teachers, students, and the present members. The four officers delivered speeches and presented the honorary membership to Mr. Tom Mayo. The speaker for the occasion, Dr. Beverly Ballaro, enlightened the students and audience alike with her insight on achieving true wisdom and realizing one's goals.

Carnival Ball

This year's Carnival Ball, Fairytale , was one of the best in recent memory. Its storyline of class act- created fairytales intertwined with the classics of Hans Christian Anderson, the Brothers Grimm and various Disney favorites. The Queen of Carnival Ball, Amy Gebhard, along with the King Jamie Burnham, led a talented court through the opening waltz and the closing dance. Master of Ceremonies Michael Picariello lead a talented cast through the maylay of scenes, dances, and live performances. The script was written by Picariello, director Mr. James Carino, and Vice-Principal turned Creative Consultant Mr. Ed Russo. The technical direction was headed by Justin McCarthy, and the Senior Class choreography was largely lead and inspired by soccer legend turned disco queen Lisa Ferragamo.

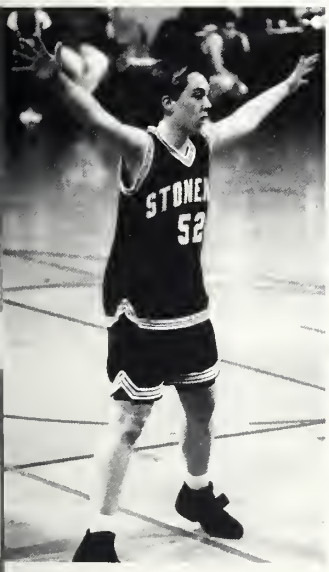
Winter Sports

As the winter season arrives, so do the winter sports. As did many of the teams in the fall, the winter sports teams fared relatively well. While some records may not completely reflect all of the hard work put in by many of the athletes and their coaches, the look on each player's face in the middle of a game shows just how committed each one really was. As we flip through the following pages, it's important to remember the story that each team tells, through pictures, all on their own.



Girls' Basketball

This year's season was certainly a season to remember. We shared good times and bad times, happy times and sad times. We worked very hard this season. Our determination and desire were evident in both the games we played and the practices we held. Thanks for all of the memories. We'll never forget Air Sierra or Sparky Sable. Good luck to all the seniors next year. Thank you Mr. Marinelli for all of your hard work and effort in trying to make the team just that much better. Best of luck to all of the future teams!

Boys' Basketball

The 94-95 Spartan boys' hoop team was a very athletic and fun team to watch. They always played hard and were in every game because of their tenacious defense. The Spartans were lead by Tom Joyce and Tom Adams, who established himself as a top player in the league. Bob Scali was the team's best rebounder and a team leader. Wes Jaques and Jon Mahoney shared the starting duties at center and gave the team some rebounding and scoring. Mike Linstom, Darren Svendsen, and Don Domoretsky gave the team invaluable minutes off the bench with some scoring and rebounding. Freshman Alonzo Hoose showed he has the ability needed to play in the league, while Conrad Hardy and Matt Iascone showed great team support and were always ready when called upon. The Spartans enjoyed a fun year and established themselves as a team to be reckoned with in the future.

Like many of the other winter sports teams, the gymnastics team did not have as good a season as they would have liked. However, the team did come together to have some very good meets, and they did well to made the season a respectable one. Ice Hockey

The 1994-1995 Stoneham High HOckey Team had a rollercoaster ride of a season. Early in the season the Spartans posted a six win and two loss record, and had great reason to hope for a Middlesex ternament birth. But, in keeping with that rollercoaster ride, the team found themselves on an unstoppable nose dive, Despite some late sucesses, not all of the pre-season goals were met. However, the team was able to rebound near the end of the season and have a respectable year.

Winter Cheerleading

The Winter Cheerleading squad had an unforgettable season. Not only did we try our best to support the Hockey and Basketball teams during their memorable seasons, we challenged ourselves to compete both within and outside of the Middlesex League. Best of luck to all next year!!!

Boys' Track

Full of manly men, this year's boys' track team consisted of a group just oozing with testosterone. The captains lead a dedicated bunch of boys from across all four classes. The record showed a determined team, as did the faces of many of the athletes. We had a great time, and really enjoyed every minute of it. The younger classes are full of gifted and talented athletes, and there'll be no trouble making next just as great as this past one.

Girls' Track

This winter, the lady spartans track team finished second place in the Middlesex league. We had a strong eight and one record. Stoneham had strong performances in nearly every event, whether they were jumping, running, or throwing. The sucess of the season was due to the cooperation and hard work of the entire team. Thanks everybody, good luck next year!

Spring of 1994

"I'll make you a dress,"said the springing grass,
Just looking above the grass,
"A dress of green of the loveliest sheen,
To cover you all around."
"And we," said the dandelions gay,
Will dot it with yellow bright."
"I'll make it a fringe," said the forget-me-not,
"Of blue, very soft and light."

Junior Prom

Held at the new Hyatt Harborside near the airport, this year's Junior Prom certainly lived up to its theme of "Heaven". In a tasteful ballroom setting that included the musical majesty of The Doctors, who controlled songs at the booth, and the grinning smiles of three administrators, this year's prom could only be called a great success. With a fabulous meal (which included actual pieces of garden in the Garden Salad) and an excellent dessert, we were ready to dance the night away as one half kicked off their heels and the other half unbuttoned their collars. It was a wild time and an evening that left you wondering how it could ever be topped. Yet, we all wait in gleeful anticipation, fully conscious of the fact that this year's Junior Prom was just a preview for the glorious night to come. Yes, it was simply a peek into what our crowning moment, the Senior Prom, will be like. The Junior Prom was a fabulous time, and not one which anybody will soon forget.

Livin' it up!!!

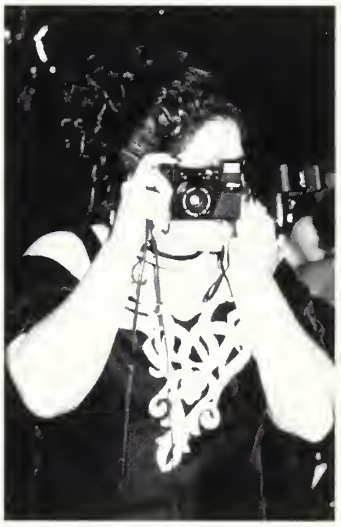
Did you ever think I'd become this cute??

I feel happy!

Aren't we cute.

Wake up!!!

Yo Dave, "Wha' Sup'?"



yum!!!!

All those years of braces finally paid off.

It wasn't true.

Semi Formal

The theme was "A Whole New World", and a whole new world the cafeteria was that cool March night. While snow still covered the ground outside, nothing but anxious and excited feet covered the dance floor inside. With recollections of our Freshman Semi-Formal well behind us, we all crowded into the school for a glorious night. Aided by creative disc jockeying by Erich Butters and even more creative dancing by everybody else, the Semi-Formal was a huge success, almost doubling the number of couples that had gone the year before. With Disney characters gracing the walls, a giant Jack-in-the-Box gracing the entrance, and decked out couples gracing the Cafe, it's no wonder that our Semi-Formal was such a memorable one. Indeed, on such a cold night only the warmest of memories float back into our minds as we look back upon our younger Sophomore days.

Stars in their eyes.

Freshman Fantastics!

Smile for the camera!!

And a lovely tongue it is.

Sunglasses at night???

Best of buddies.

Spring Musical

Last year's musical, "The Sound of Music", was one of the more successful musicals in recent years. Written by the famous pair, Rogers and Hammerstein, the show went up in early May to the applause of hundreds. So successful was the show that it was commissioned to travel to both Robin Hood and Central School to perform a shortened version for the elementary students. Starring in the musical was graduate Jerelyn McNaught, who played the part of Maria. Playing opposite her was senior Dennis D'Angelo, who took the part of Capt. Von Trapp. Other seniors who starred in the show were Laura Krakow, as the eldest daughter Lisel, and Brant Berglund who played Lisel's love interest, Rolf. Playing the maternal role of Mother Superior, Marci Iovanni astonished the crowd with her breathtaking rendition of "Climb Every Mountain". Senior Ian M. Judge was excellent as the frightening Nazi captain. The group did very well under the direction of Beth Zieff and the vocal coaching of Ben Youngman. The best of luck to next year's cast and crew!!!

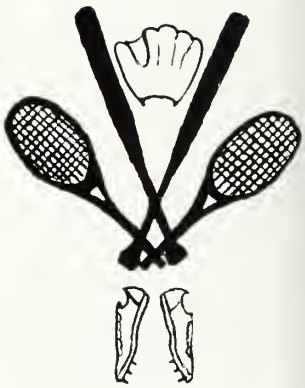
Spring Sports

Spring is in the air and the Stoneham athletes take to the fields once again, which, unfortunately, are covered with melting snow. However, spring fever runs high as yet another successful sports season begins. The runners are back on the thawing roads, and the baseball and softball players patiently wait to dig their cleats back into the dirt. Tennis players are eager to hit the courts, but they must first shovel them off. All are ready to work hard and receive the triumphs with the losses and the laughter with the tears. Team spirit will run rampant once again as all athletes find themselves with a new family of teammates and coaches. Good luck to all spring athletes, it won't be long before you enjoy the warm spring sun again.



Soaring to new heights.

Four All Seasons

As we look back upon four years and four seasons, we come to this section, Four All Seasons, in which we look upon those images which transcend all four years. Those images that will last forever in our minds are perserved here in our yearbook. As we glance upon our senior portraits and read each other's quotes, we keep with us a constant reminder of both who we were and who our class was. As we read over our superlatives, we can think back to those members of the class that really stood out in our minds. And then, of course, we turn to the friends pages, so that we might never forget our friends and the wonderful times that we've shared together. At last, we see the couples pages, and we can look back to our days of young love and affection, remembering our high school sweethearts. We go across the seasons, across the years, and think about our four years here at Stoneham High, Four All Seasons.

Underclassmen

There are balms for all our pain;

Faculty and Staff

Throughout our last four years, we have all been touched by adult members of the Faculty and Staff. They are, indeed, our teachers, our educators, and while we often found their lessons hard to understand and thought their meanings unclear, it is obvious to us now what it was so many of them were really saying. Indeed, many of their greatest teachings were never even delivered in the classroom but rather on the playing field and in the theater, the band room and in the library. It was their life lessons that will stay with us forever, those lessons that were never recorded in a notebook and whose answers were never checked in a test. We learned from our teachers many facts, figures, and laws which govern life. While we prepare to enter the future, we cannot forget our past and that includes our teachers, our mentors, and, in many cases, our coaches and friends.

Clubs and Activities

When the bell rings at 2: 34 and everybody reaches that point in the day when they want to go home, very few of them actually do. Many go to their extra-curriculars, their own individual clubs and activities. Such organizations give the school variety and character. Thus, we're entertained by the Drama Club, the Band and the Chorale, we're informed by SADD, and harassed to buy T-shirts by POWER. Our students reach out to other students through Peer Leadership, Peer Mediating, and Peer Counseling. Whether your love be art or language, journalism or math, there is a club for you, as this section clearly points out.

Seniors of 1995

Remembrance is the real reason behind any yearbook, and ours is no different. As we come to this section, we are reminded of who we are, and, more importantly, years from now we may all remember who we were. The makeup of our class, its own unique personality, is best defined in the following pages. While it's important to every member of the school, the ones most memorable to us will most certainly be each other, the Class of 1995. So we embark on the Senior Section of the yearbook, that part of the book which allows us to remember each other without distractions, remember the most friendly, the most likely to be famous, the most likely to succeed. It was an interesting four years, as evidenced by this section.
